Head Liner

Saturday May 28th 7:30 Pm Zac Harmon

Zac Harmon, born & raised in the heart of Jackson, MI, is a true disciple of blues music from the historic Farish Street district, the home of such legends as the great Elmore James. Zac has gigged as a guitarist for the likes of Z.Z. Hill, Dorothy Moore & Sam Myers. Moving to L.A. in the eighties, he established himself as a studio musician & then as a writer and producer, crafting songs for many of the top musicians of the day.

Head Liner

Sunday May 29th 5:00 Pm Harry Manx

Harry Manx, the "Mysticssippi" blues man, is called an "essential ink" between the music of East and West, creating musical short stories that wed the blues with classical Indian ragas using his addictive unique sounds. His signature instrument is the 20 string Mohan Veena after a five year study of Eastern scales under Vishwa Mohab Bhatt's tutelage where he even had to re-learn how to hold the bar. He was then able to play the complex sounds that form the basis of Indian compositions.
